MCF SICAV UCITS FUND - RIGE Capital, A Class LU1012215478

a sub-fund of MCF SICAV UCITS FUND

The Investment Advisor of this sub-fund is MERIDEN IFM SGOIC SAU.

Objectives and investment policy

This sub-fund targets long-term capital growth through mixed, flexible and non-indexed management using wide risk diversification.

The sub-fund's net assets will be allocated according to the manager's convictions on market evolution, the economic environment, market opportunities etc. and with no restrictions or limits as to geographic, industrial or sectorial diversification.

The sub-fund will invest in a selected portfolio of international equity and equity-linked instruments, bonds and debt securities and money-markets denominated in different currencies.

The sub-fund achieves its aim by investing its net assets in and/or be exposed to:

- 0-100% in fixed income transferable debt securities issued by governments, public or private companies, rated investment grade up to 50% of the net assets in high yield securities. The Sub-Fund will not invest in convertible bonds.
- 0-90% in equities, equity-linked instruments across all industrial sectors and geographical zone and sizes of stock market capitalization. The geographic and sectorial mix of issuers is not determined in advance and will be achieved on the basis of the market opportunities.
- 0-30% in UCITS (according to the UCITS law) and/or other UCI (including ETFs).
- 0-70% in currencies no denominated in Euros.
- 0-10% in structured products.

• This sub-fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money within 1 year.

• It should be noted that the investment policy of the sub-fund is to invest in the shares or units of UCITS and or other UCI (including ETFs) and that entails a double payment of fees (such as subscriptions and redemptions fees, management fees...). The total management fee calculated based on actual management fees costs paid on behalf of fund holdings, may vary up to 4% of their respective net assets.

• It should be noted that UCITS and or other UCI (including ETFs) in which the sub-fund may invest may concentrate in markets that if the fund was to invest directly, would not be as efficient. The allocation of assets in this type of investment would not exceed 30% as indicated above. Such investments purport obtain a higher diversification of the overall portfolio, lower the volatility of the sub-fund, and be more efficient than a direct investment of the sub-fund.

• Within the framework of efficient management, this sub-fund may also use derivatives within the limits described in Chapter 6 "Financial techniques and instruments associated with transferable securities and money-market instruments intended for efficient portfolio management" and in accordance with Chapter 5 "Investment Restrictions" described in Part I of the Prospectus.

The sub-fund may hold, on a temporary basis, up to 100% of its assets in cash or money market instruments (i.e. cash and short term deposits, certificates of deposit and bills, money market funds).

It may also hedge its exposure to non-euro currencies according to the manager's conviction.

The sub-fund may use financial derivative instruments for investment purposes, hedging and/or efficient portfolio management. The underlyings assets of the above mentioned derivatives consist mainly on index and currencies.

The investor may subscribe, convert and redeem shares twice monthly. Income of this share class is reinvested (accumulated).

Risk and reward profile

What does this synthetic indicator mean?

- The calculation of the risk indicator is based on estimated data which may not be a reliable indication of the future risk profile of the sub-fund.
- The risk category shown is not guaranteed to remain unchanged. The sub-fund's risk indicator may shift over time.
- The lowest category does not mean a risk-free investment.
