

Curriculum Vitae

César Valcárcel Fernández de la Riva

Board Member

Mr Valcárcel is a member of the Board of Directors of the Andbank Group.

He holds a degree in Economics and Business Studies, specialising in International Economics, from the CEU San Pablo University in Madrid. He holds the Morgan Financial Program and S.T.I.S track program certificates from J.P. Morgan, and is certified in Global Markets and Derivatives by BNP Paribas.

He has extensive professional experience in the world of international finance as Managing Director with responsibility for the Iberian market (Spain, Portugal and Andorra) with multi-product knowledge encompassing Treasury, Asset Management, Issuer Services, Custody, Private Banking, and Depositary among others. He has built his career at major institutions such as J.P. Morgan, BNP Paribas, BNY Mellon and Antwort Capital Luxembourg. He is also currently Chairman of the Board of Andbank Asset Management Luxembourg.