

Curriculum Vitae

Albert Rosés Noguer

Director

He is a member of the board of directors of the Andbank Group.

He is a graduate in company Economics and Business Studies, from the Autonomous University of Barcelona. He graduated in the 6th year of the "From Executive to Director" programme at the IESE Business School, and has taken several seminars and courses related to auditing functions and activities at the KPMG Business School.

He has an extensive career in the auditing sector. His professional career has been mainly at KPMG Auditors, SL where he joined in 1985, being appointed partner of KPMG in Spain in October 1996.

Since his appointment he has been involved in multiple sectors with a special dedication to the financial sector for the last 15 years, auditing industrial companies, banks, insurance companies and asset management companies.

Also, he has been Assistant Professor at the Faculty of Economics and Business at the Autonomous University of Barcelona,