

Curriculum Vitae

Jorge Maortua

Director

He is a member of the Board of Directors of the Andbank Group.

He holds a Degree in Economics and Business Administration from the Pontifical School of Comillas (ICADE) and has held various positions of high responsibility in the banking sector.

Maortua has more than 30 years of experience, and was Managing Director of Global Markets for 16 years at JP Morgan. He then served as Director of Global Banking and Markets at Banco Santander for more than 10 years. He was also Director of Banesto's Wholesale Banking. Finally, he has worked as an advisor in several leading international institutions such as the Inter-American Development Bank (Washington) and Everis.